

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF EASTERN AFRICA

Office of the Deputy Vice Chancellor
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS AND RESEARCH

October 18th 2017

IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO: Academic Staff and All Students

Subject: Shift in Academic Calendar, 1st Semester 2017/2018

This to notify all staff and students that the academic calendar has been shifted by ONE week following the "Wednesday 25th October to Wednesday 1st November 2017" break for the Kenya Presidential re-election. Lectures are scheduled to end one week later.

Furthermore, Faculties are expected to make up for the extra day of Wednesday scheduled lectures that will be missed. Rescheduled Wednesday lectures must be well communicated to students and shared with the office of the Registrar Academics.

The first semester 2017/2018 academic year examinations shall therefore begin (all programmes) from Monday 4th December 2017 to end by the 22nd December 2017. The tentative examination timetable shall be released by the 25th October 2017 (and posted on the website). Students are to study and report clashes for consideration.

Please do not hesitate to call on the Registrar Academics or my office for any clarification that may be necessary.

Wishing you all the best.
