

About The Property

St. Bakhita Hostel is owned and managed by the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. It offers accommodation to Catholic Religious Sisters from Kenya and all over the world. The Hostel is located at the University Main Campus in Lang'ata, Nairobi Kenya and it is able to serve Religious Sisters studying or working at the University, Tangaza University College and other institutions within its environs. The Hostel is within the University compound, next to the sports grounds and within a walking distance to the lecture halls.

St. Bakhita Hostel, its facilities and services are designed to promote and support the academic growth of the resident Religious Sisters; at the same time promote their spiritual well-being. Given that the Religious Sisters are away from their original communities, they have a chance to form and stay in a similar environment with their classmates, study-mates or workmates.
